Life is a road that has to be travelled,
A road with a beginning and an end.
The journey has been travelled by many before;
The trails made have created the trend.

One can follow the trail that the trend has set,
Or he can make a new path of his own.
He can follow the road not taken.
Does he have strength to do it alone?

A change in pace or direction
May be the only clue
For an individual to become himself
With the chance to start anew.

Life is a road.
Will the end be a rainbow?

DA Forum

"Participation by a large number of students will improve our image in the eyes of others outside McNeese. We will command more respect through our show of organization, enthusiasm and potential power, both as voters and active citizens who can make things happen." Troutman

Early in the fall semester, the Contraband, with help from the Student Government Association, and the Student Union Board, co-hosted a "Meet the Candidates Forum," enabling the McNeese community to hear the five candidates for the District Attorney office answer questions from a student panel on which were seated SUB President Bryan Gill, SGA President David O'Bryan, Contraband political columnist Paul Miller, and student-at-large Dale Martin.

Candidates Fred Book, Lenn Knapp, Jr., Raleigh Newman, Larry Roach, and incumbent Frank Salter each gave an opening talk and a closing word to the student body, which assembled at 10:00 a.m., Friday, September 8, in the Leland Parra Ballroom of the Holbrook Student Union Annex. The entire forum was organized by McNeese students, who began working weeks ahead of time, and it received coverage from the Lake Charles American Press, Beaumont Enterprise, KPLC-TV, and radio stations KLOU and KSNS.

The student organizers appeared at first to be over-enthusiastic by printing about 275 ballots to pass out before the forum, but they quickly ran out of ballots when a turnout of 500 left standing room only, proving the interest McNeese students have in our community.

The ballots, collected after the forum, handed the straw election to Knapp, with his votes outnumbering those of his opponents five to one.

Primary elections on Saturday, September 16, had a voter turnout in Calcasieu Parish of 65%, the best turnout in the state. Three out of every four voters wanted a new DA, with Knapp carrying 69 out of 81 precincts. Salter, 20, and Newman, 2.

A 70% voter turnout on Election Day, November 7, gave Knapp the seat for the 14th Judicial District Attorney with 35,117 votes against the 23,609 held by Salter.

FACES

Faces of friends, faces of enemies, faces of roommates, faces of boyfriends, faces of girlfriends, faces!

The face of a McNeese student can be seen at a football game cheering the team to final victory, in a biology laboratory behind a microscope, in the coffee shop with a friend and a 32-ounce Coke, or even in the news.

Faces of students seem to be everywhere..

In one's college career he sees many faces which will be completely forgotten and many faces which will turn into a conglomeration of haze in the back of his mind.

Then there are those faces we see here at McNeese which will become the faces we see in high public offices or prestigious positions in the various communities.

Learn What It Takes To Lead . . .

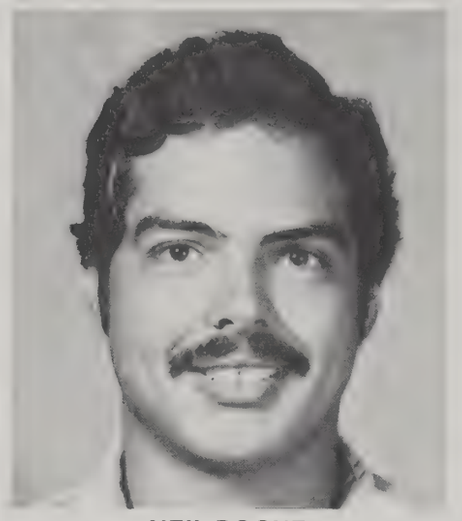

That's the theme statement of the McNeese State University Reserve Officers Training Corps.

By designing all programs with this statement in mind, ROTC program goals are set to assist the student in development of self-discipline, physical stamina, and leadership techniques.

Several organizations which provide exciting and challenging opportunities for the development of military skills are the Rifle Team, Pershing-Ware Rifles, Recondos, and Orienteering Team.

Pictures shown on this double-page spread are students who participated in an ATX (Advanced Training Exercise) — to teach advance students skills necessary for successful completion of Advance Camp which is held at Fort Riley, Kansas during the summer between their junior and senior year.

Fine Arts' Wall Collapses

A section of wall connecting the old Fine Arts Building to a newer addition collapsed at 3:15 p.m., Friday, Nov. 10, on the McNeese campus.

No injuries were reported as the 65-foot wall fell on the roof of the building. However, the Bayou Players' production of "The Mousetrap" was postponed.

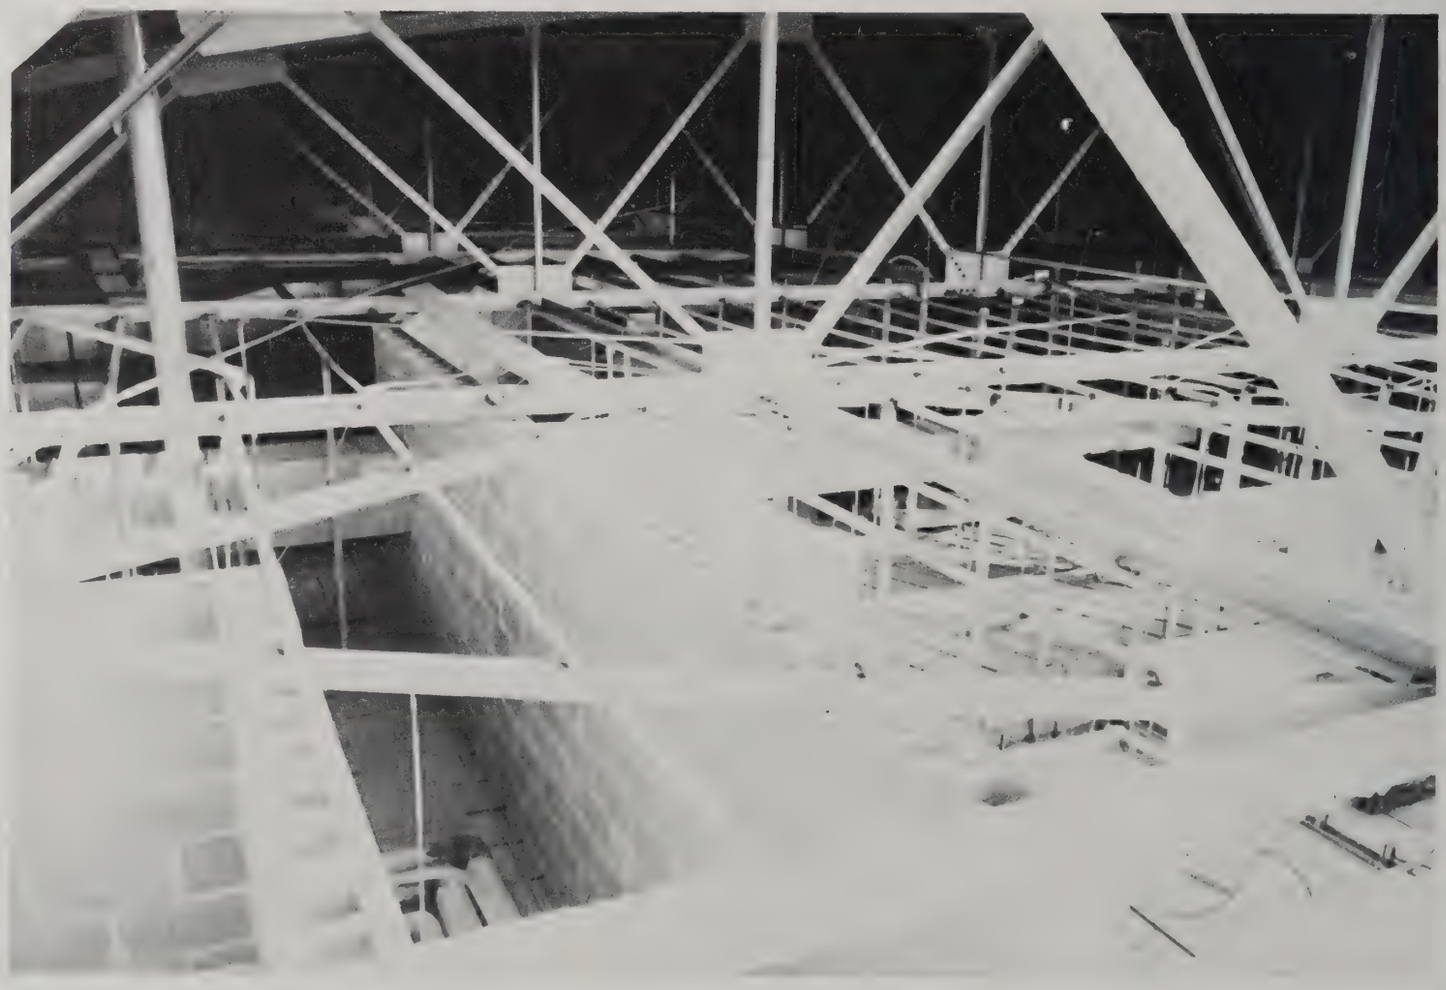

Three classrooms, three offices, several rehearsal rooms, and a part of Squires Recital Hall were damaged by the falling bricks.

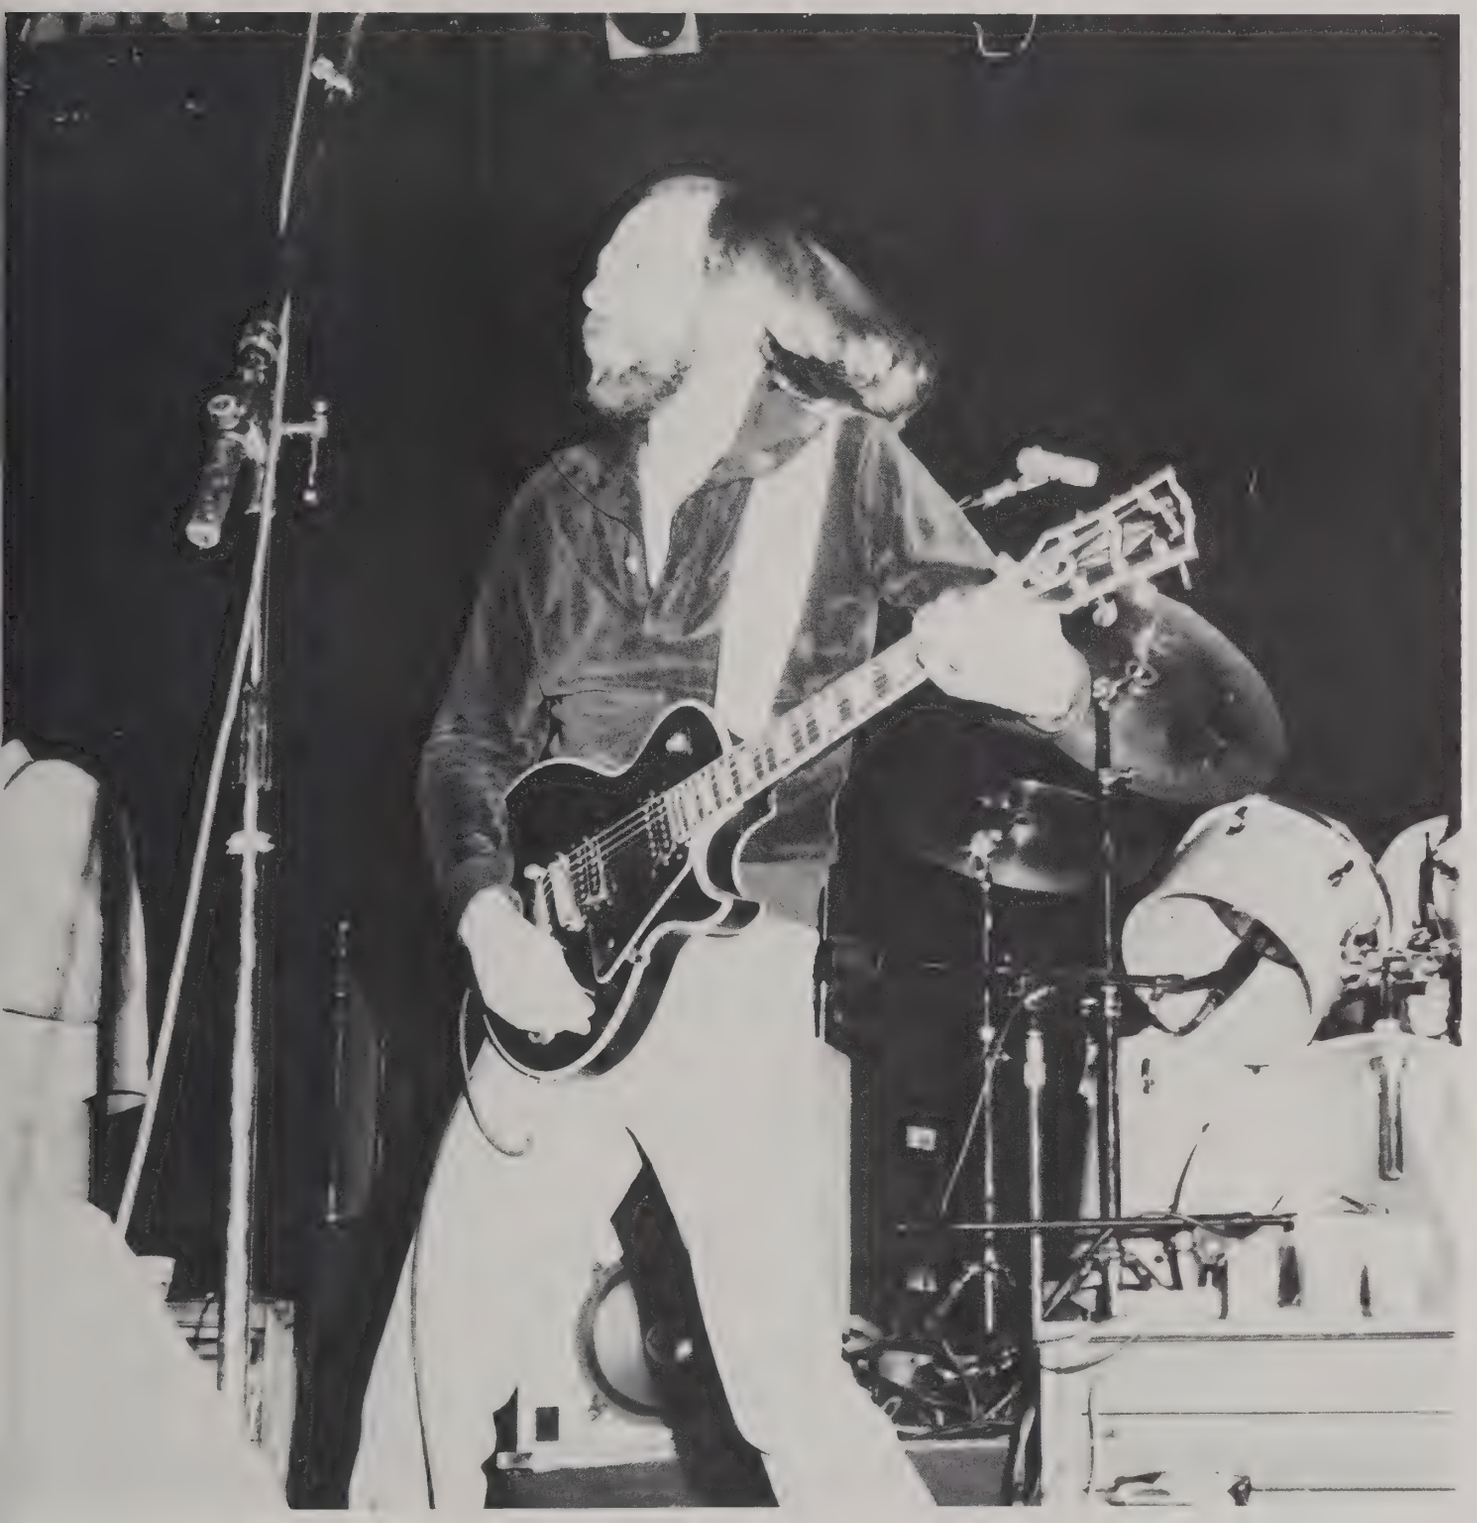

A new wall was erected in the building by use of emergency funding from the Board of Liquidation.

Repairs stemming from the collapse totalled at approximately $64,400, according to Paul Ritter, Director of Facilities and Planning.

Bolts were placed in the back wall behind the stage in Ralph Squires Auditorium — a section built in the same way as the one that had fallen. The fallen wall was a free-standing one, not connected to the building in any way.

"Sea Level" Performs at McNeese

The McNeese Student Union Board (SUB) presented "Sea Level" in concert Wednesday, Jan. 24 at 8 p.m. in the main auditorium.

"Sea Level" is most widely known for its origin. Three members are remnants of the Allman Brothers Band — Johanmy Johanson, Chuck Leavell, and Lamar Williams. Other members are Jimmy Nalls, Davis Causey, and George Weaver.

"Sea Level" has three albums — Sea Level, Cats on the Coast, and On the Edge.

Several new album cuts were recorded live before the McNeese crowd.

The concert opened with "Oconee," a five-piece jazz rock group.

After the night of the performance, memories of the group remained in the minds of students. Varied responses towards the concert and the SUB tuition assessment were made known by more than six letters to the editor in the "Contraband."

Many students felt that "Sea Level" did not qualify for the definition of "big name" entertainment.

Others stated that they performed a "qualitative college level concert" and "satisfied the necessity of the latest desired sounds."

SUB was blindly criticized and defended on their attempt in acquiring "big name" entertainment.

The Student Government Association of McNeese has seen a revitalization in very recent years and the administration of President O'Bryan was a good example of this case. Homecoming activities coordinated by SGA proved to be one of the biggest and best ever. These activities included the homecoming parade, carnival and talent show. Dozens of legal cases were handled under the department of student rights and welfare. And of course, the student government represented the student body on the various university committees. The students of McNeese were also represented on a statewide level. David served as student member of the Board of Trustees for state colleges and universities — the first SGA president from McNeese to serve in this position. Student Government . . . they're the one you can turn to.

"Our Classrooms Are Not Always Classrooms"

Orienteering . . . rappelling . . . mountaineering . . . canoeing. These are all part of the new image of Army ROTC at McNeese, and it's called "adventure training." ROTC cadets spend a great deal of time outside the classroom in all types of hands-on training, putting into practice what they learn in theory in the classroom. This training prepares them both physically and mentally to meet the challenges which they will face as Army officers on active duty or as members of the Reserve Components —

Whether or not a student plans to earn a commission in the U.S. Army through ROTC, all of them enjoy the friendly competition and esprit de corps which adventure training fosters within the Cadet Corps.

The Orchestra assisted two major productions, as a nucleus for the "Messiah" orchestra and as the pit orchestra for the annual Lions Club-MSU opera presentation. A Spring concert was also given.

Valarie Jacobson, Nanette Soileau and Allyson Fewell are trying to figure out which way is up in one of the stories for the newspaper.

The Contraband Staff was one which did more than just publish a weekly newspaper. It was a leader in student interest and activity, and even became involved in local politics when it sponsored a forum for the first five District Attorney candidates. The staff contained a wide range of personalities which included leaders from other campus organizations. The paper made its aim not only to inform and entertain, but to instigate and inspire. The staff worked hard to upgrade McNeese and the people who are a part of the MSU community, by participating in events, not just covering them. From Editor, to columnists, to staff writers, the group worked as a team to produce its end product, the Contraband.

After dusting shelves, moving furniture, ordering materials and supplies, and painting walls, the 1979 Log staff began the journey of creating the pages that lie within.

The year began with fall registration — the time when all students take their class pictures. After filling out the little brown envelopes, members of the Log staff got to know several Johnny Cash individuals who claimed they were from Tennessee, and John Doe individuals who said they were from Timbuktoo or Ireland.

After approximately 6,000 class pictures were alphabetized and labelled, layouts drawn and copy typed, the first deadline was met.

The completion of the class section was a conglomeration of ideas and efforts of basically the entire staff. No photo requests or print orders were in effect, so there was plenty of free time for everyone to pitch in.

The remainder of the fall semester was spent scheduling and taking group shots, rescheduling and retaking groupshots, and rescheduling again. During this period of chaos, two new photographers were hired and invited into the turmoil.

Many staff members, especially the photographers, and the section editors forgot what class was. The purpose of attending McNeese was seemingly shoved aside when Marvin Jackson, Organization and Greeks editor, demanded the time of the photographers.

While Marvin ordered and reordered the prints, Jim Still, Daneé Caraway, Cindy Dixon, and John Campbell, spent their free time camping out in the darkroom trying to meet the deadlines.

Lise Taylor, Mark Ray, and Cindi Carpenter worked with Marvin scheduling group shots, apologizing to irate groups when the photographers forgot to show up, and proofreading the quad-paks.

Mid-term exams were no barrier for Judy Malveaux. After getting all pictures ordered for the Administration section, she completed the section and it was finally mailed.

While all the attention was directed to the Class, Organization, Greeks, and Administration sections, Angelle Bergeron was quietly gathering the needed photographs for the Sports section, and Monica Vincent and Fran Rippeon diligently made photo requests for the Events section.

When section editors created the ideas, Pam Cotham, Layout editor created the tangible aspect of the idea by completing a quad-pak layout. When section editors' ideas changed, quad-paks were thrown away.

Other staff members that contributed to the overall effect of the yearbook were Corliss Badeaux, Copy editor, Carl Smith and Vickey Racca. Corliss corrected copy while Carl monitored the news releases and incoming mail.

Taking staff members to lunch, spending the night in her office to meet the opening section deadline, designing division pages, completing the "People" section and creating the motivational factor that kept everyone going, were some of the tasks Editor Donna M. Vincent accomplished and still managed to keep her sanity.

Positive attitudes and teamwork were the two factors that kept the 1979 Log staff together. This rare staff enjoyed and encouraged each other and overlooked job titles when a job needed to be completed when even though it wasn't their direct responsibility.

Sports

Athletics are an Integral Part of Campus Life

McNeese's intercollegiate sports program forms an integral part of campus life, providing not only for students and residents, but also giving outstanding high school graduates an opportunity to continue athletic endeavors.

Football, basketball, baseball, cross country, track and field, golf, tennis and women's athletics including basketball, volleyball, and tennis are the components of the athletic program under the direction of Dr. Jack Doland, who also serves as head football coach.

The men's athletic teams are members of the Southland Conference and the NCAA Division I-A. In the eight years that Doland has been athletic director, the Cowboy football team has played in two post season bowls (Independence and Grantland Rice) and appeared on ABC-TV's regional telecast.

The Cowboys have sent athletics to the NCAA golf tournament and to the NCAA track and field championship.

As a member of the Southland Conference, the Cowboys are eligible each year to participate in numerous post season activities. The league's football champion serves as host for the Independence Bowl game in Shreveport while the baseball champion has an automatic berth in the NCAA Southwest Regional playoffs.

Since joining the Southland Conference six years ago, McNeese has claimed a total of nine league titles. The cross country team has won four (1973, 1975, 1976, 1978), the golf team two (1977, 1978), the basketball team two (1976, 1978) and the football team one (1976).

Cross Country, basketball and golf were the winners this past season. In his first year as head coach, Glenn Duhon led his team to a 20-8 overall record and to a tie for the championship with Lamar University.

In golf, Tim Graham won his second straight Southland Conference title and the Cowboys also repeated as the team champions.

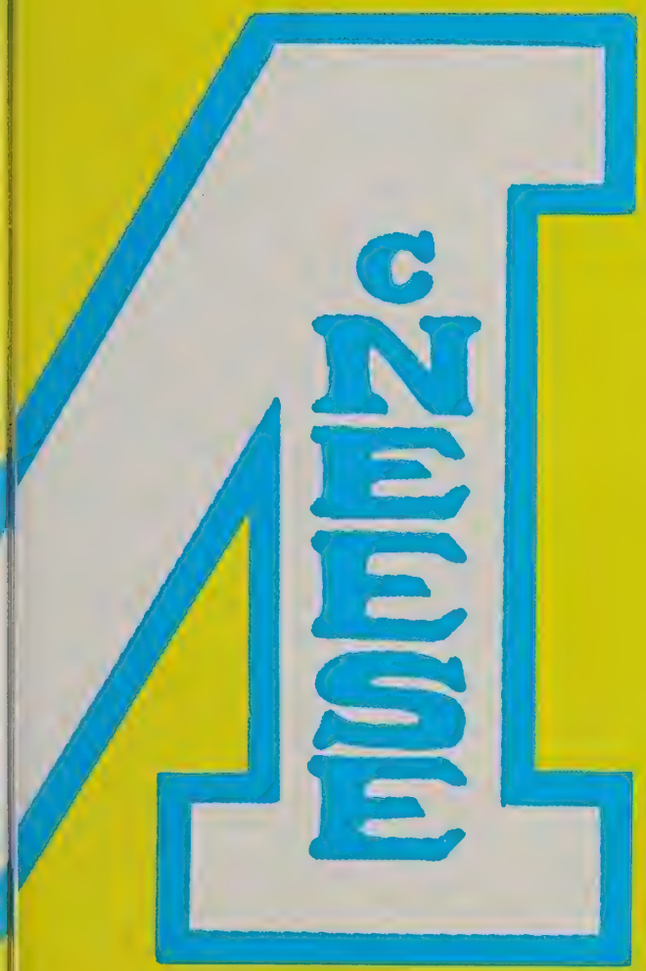

The Cowboy cross country team chalked up its fourth Southland Conference championship with the Pokes' David Kohrs winning the individual title in a time of 32:05. The Poke victory produced the largest margin of victory ever in SLC championship competition.

The football and baseball teams, both in rebuilding years, placed fifth and sixth respectively, in the league while tennis finished fourth, and track and field fifth.

In Spring Sports all conference honors went to Tim Graham, Larry Marshall and Beaver Pierrotti in golf; David Kohrs and Noel McCarron in track and field. Earning most valuable athlete awards were Peters (track), Graham (golf), Joey Armentor (baseball), Gustavo Rivera (tennis), Camille Soulier (women's tennis), Lynette Viator (volleyball), and Etta Lampkin (women's basketball).

McNeese State's Richard Ellender, Don Stump and Charles Jefferson were all Southland Conference football leaders for the 1978 season.

The McNeese women's program, under the direction of Margie Hinton, posted respectable records in all three sports this season and also earned berths in both the state and regional basketball tournaments. Women's softball has been added to the McNeese program.

BIGGEST KICK

IN TOWN!

Involv at McNe

Jack Doland heads up one of the most successful athletic programs in the South, one that participates in 11 varsity sports, the men in seven and the women in four.

Since 1970 Doland has held the dual role of athletic director and head football coach and he's one of only two head football coaches in the nation to also possess a Ph.D. degree. While here at McNeese he gathered together a most outstanding coaching staff.

Doland's football coaching staff includes one that is not only versatile but also well experienced. His first assistant is defensive back field coach Ernie Duplechin (23 years experience) while Hubert Boales (23 years experience) serves as the linebacker coach and Tucker Debetaz (15 years experience) serves as defensive line coach.

Handling the offensive phase of the coaching are backfield coach Ted Brevelle (14 years experience), line coach John McCann (6 years experience) and receiver coach Johnny Suydam (6 years experience).

Other members of the McNeese coaching staff are 15 year veteran Bob Hayes who has guided the Cowboy track program for the past 11 seasons, former Cowboy letterman Glenn Duhon who directs the basketball program that includes Denny Wright and George Murphy as assistants on his coaching staff and led his team to the league championship in his first season; and Margie Hinton, who is the women's sports coordinator.

Cowboy assistant football coaches have the dual responsibility of also coaching spring sports, as Brevelle doubles with tennis, Boales doubles with golf and Suydam takes care of baseball.

The University's athletic trainer and now in his fourth year is Jim Murphy, a registered physical therapist.

Louis Bonnett serves as the Athletic Business Manager and Sports Information Director.

The McNeese athletic facilities have been on the grow since 1970 and the Cowboys play their football games in the 20,000 seat Cowboy Stadium. Basketball is played in the 6,500 capacity Lake Charles Civic Center while track is run on a Chevron 440 track (one of the fastest in the South).

Just recently they added underground watering and reworked the baseball field and also added eight brand new Plexi-pave tennis courts.

Since the turn of the decade athletics at McNeese have grown to such a state that the Cowboys are not just contenders in each conference sponsored sport, they are the team opponents have to beat for championship.

Rodeo Team

Hard work! Continuous practice! McNeese representation! Being Number One! That is what the Rodeo Team is all about.

Sanctioned by the MSU Rodeo Club, the team is a group of hand-tooled cowboys dedicated to the sport. Through abundant student and administrative support, which allowed an assessment for scholarships, the Rodeo Team was enabled to recruit valuable additions to their squad this year, including three Louisiana State Champions and one National Champion. Also the Rodeo Team hosted the College National Finals Rodeo in Burton Coliseum.

McNeese Cowboy Team

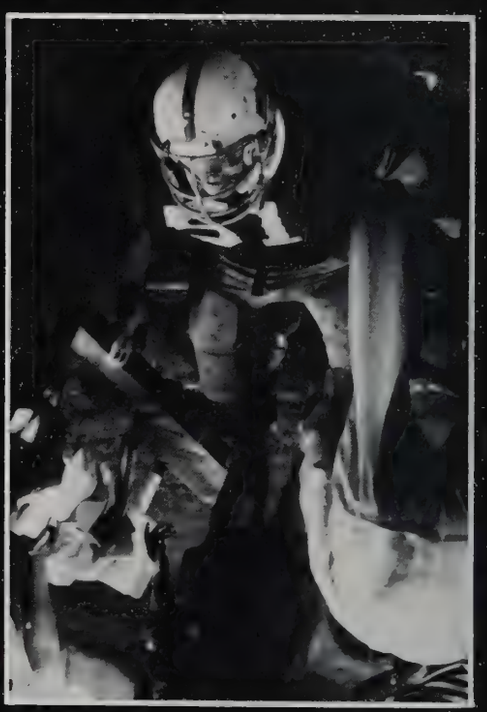

McNeese 21, Fresno State 0

Despite being rated 19 points underdogs, the Cowboys rolled to a 21-0 halftime lead over the visitors from California in a wet, muddy season opener. Chad Millet made his debut as signal caller, and did well enough to earn Southland Conference Offensive Player of the Week honors, as did Tommy Murphy for his defensive effort. Fresno began a furious second half rally capped by a 93 yard TD run by their quarterback Bill Yancy, but the talented Poke defense stifled the Bulldogs' comeback and preserved the victory.

McNeese 45, West Texas 13

In rolling up their highest point total since 1971, the Pokes picked off five West Texas passes. Doug Fruge's 57 yard interception return for a touchdown broke the game wide open in the third quarter. Freshman Theron McClendon of DeRidder was once again the leading ground gainer, picking up 56 yards on 13 carries, as the Pokes churned out 250 yards offense on the ground.

Northwestern 10
McNeese 7

The first bitter taste of defeat came on the third weekend of the season as the Pokes continually passed up golden opportunities to score. McClendon's 55 yard TD scamper on the game's first play proved to be the only points McNeese would put on the board. But the Pokes were never really out of it, and had a chance in the final minutes. However, a fumble on a fourth-and-one situation at the Demons 26 yard line spelled doom for the Cowboys. Another big blow was the loss of senior Anthony Naquin to injuries.

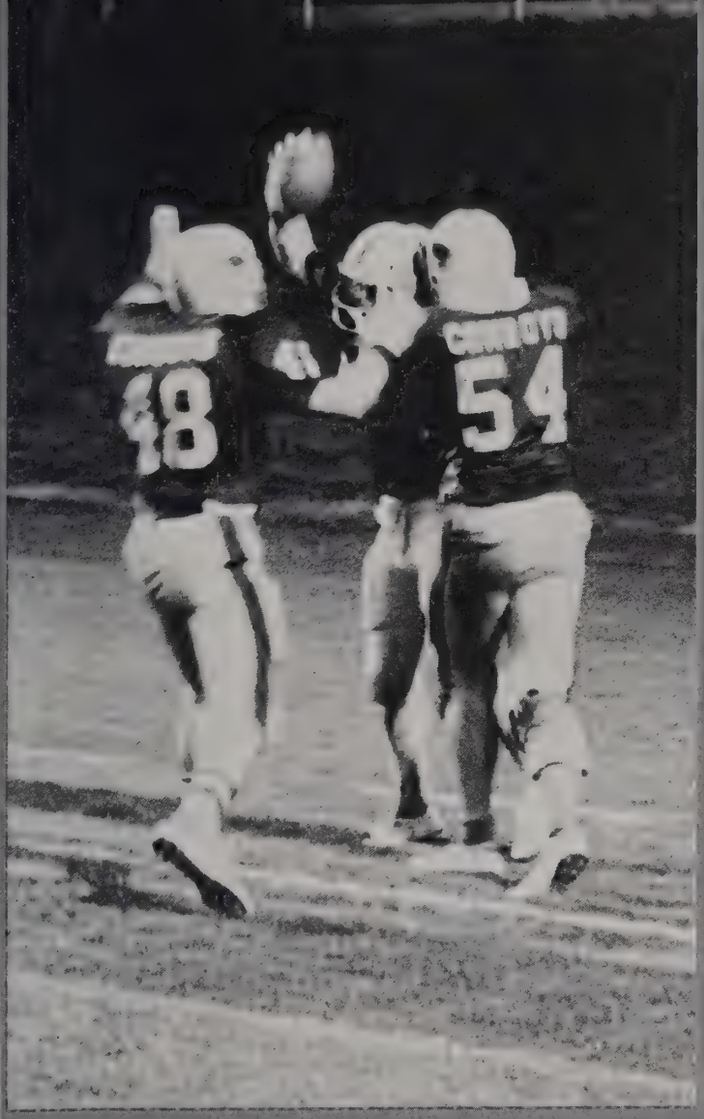

Louisiana Tech 34
McNeese 20

If the loss to Northwestern was bitter, the Tech game can only be described as heartbreaking. With only 63 seconds remaining in the Pokes' Southland Conference opener, McNeese had possession on its 44 yard line. But that old nemesis, fumble-itis, reared its ugly head, handling the ball to Tech. The Bulldogs, who ended up as league champs, promptly scored on a long pass to take the lead, and added insult to injury with an interception return for a TD with only seven seconds to go. The loss overshadowed a brilliant record-breaking 93-yard punt return by senior Richard Ellender.

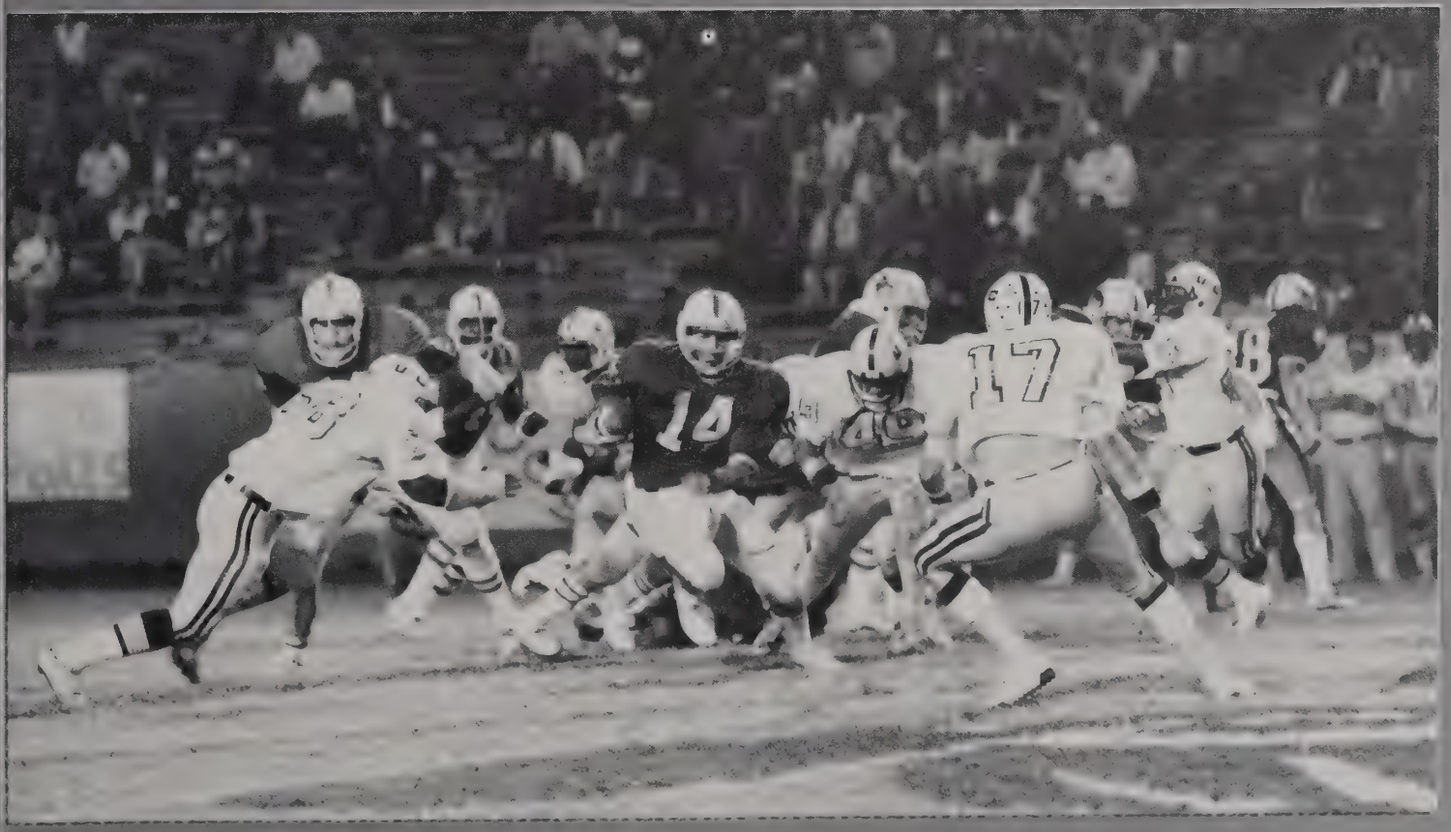

McNeese 35, Nicholls State 10

The Man-of-the-Hour was Artie Shankle, who scored a record-tying five touchdowns against the Colonels, and rushed for 105 yards. Wendell LeJeune at quarterback turned in the best passing performance to date, connecting on seven of eleven for 160 strips. Shankle was on the receiving end of four of LeJeune's aerials. The sophomore running back from Silsbee, Texas was named SLC Offensive Player of the Week for his deeds.

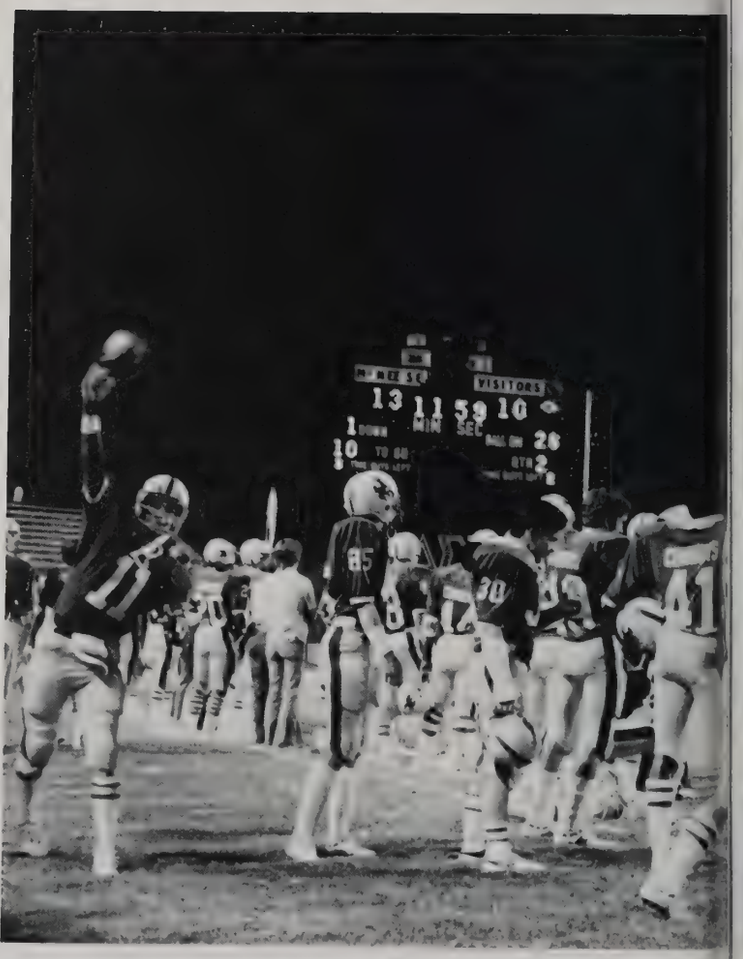

McNeese 31, Northeast Louisiana 10

The previously unbeaten Indians were given a rude welcome at the Pokes' homecoming, and the boys from Monroe walked away from Cowboy stadium with their first loss of the season. Artie Shankle continued his torrid pace, crossing the goal line twice, and racking up 139 yards rushing on 14 carries. Freshman punter and place kicker Don Stump also contributed, with three field goals.

Arkansas State 6, McNeese 3

A last second field goal by the Indians Doug Dobbs provided the winning margin for Arkansas State as the Pokes fell in their second SLC tilt. It was truly a defensive battle, and was probably the best defensive performance by McNeese all year. Doug Fruge, who was named conference Defensive Player of the Week, was everywhere, collecting 21 tackles. Don Stump accounted for the only Poke score, on a 31-yard field goal. The Port Arthur, Texas native was most impressive as a punter, averaging 46.6 yards on eight kicks. The loss virtually ended any chances of an Independence Bowl bid for the Cowboys.

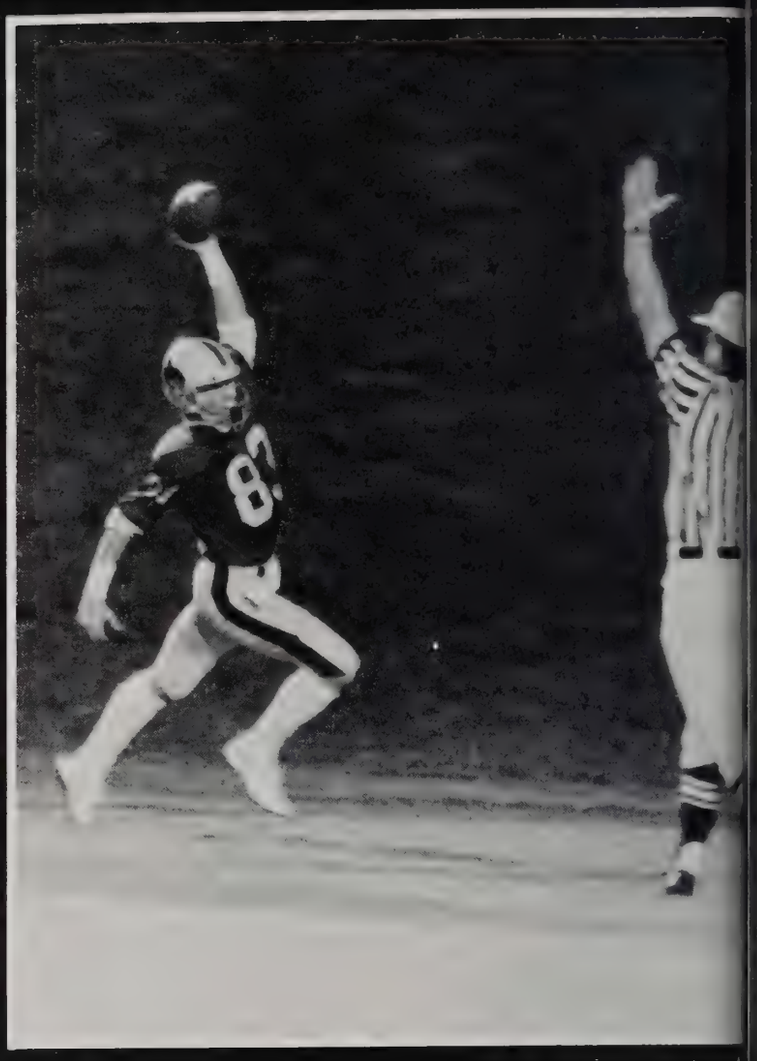

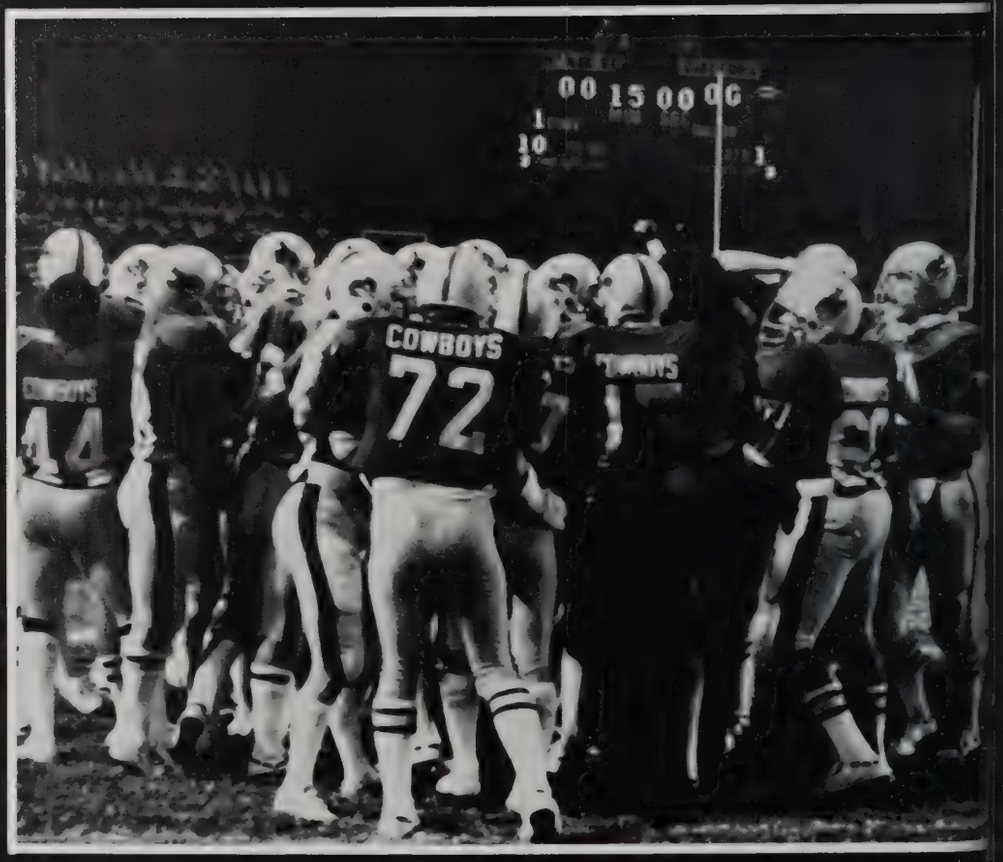

McNeese 28, Tennessee-Chattanooga 24

Another previously unbeaten team bit the dust in Cowboy Stadium, as the Moccasins, on a 15 game undefeated string, became the Pokes' fifth victim of the year. It was a game of shattered records, as Richard Ellender ran a punt back for 84 yards and a touchdown, and Don Stump ran his consecutive PAT skein to 23. A blocked field goal attempt by Doug Fruge, and pass interceptions by Charlie Jefferson and Bryan Hicks, were the big defensive plays.

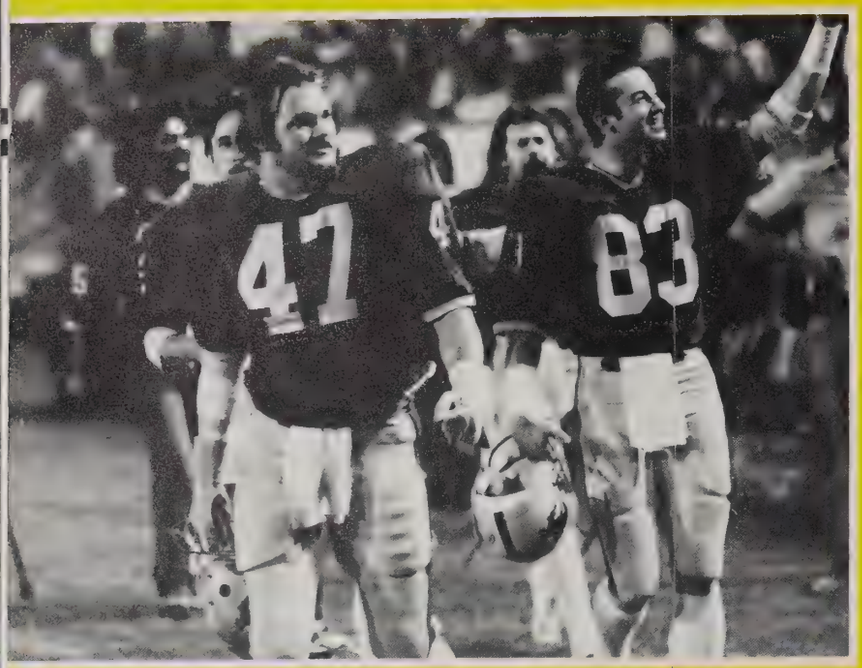

McNeese 24, Lamar 23

The Pokes rose above a fired-up bunch of Lamar Cardinals and a crew of inept officials to take the 1978 edition of the Battle of the Sabine. It wasn't what you would call a masterpiece, but the Poke victory in some small degree helped make up for the humiliating loss to Lamar in the 1977 season. McNeese scored on TDs by Chad Millet, Richard Ellender and Artie Shankle, and a field goal by Don Stump.

Texas-Arlington 20 McNeese 17

Grabbing seven passes that covered 147 yards, split end Richard Ellender had the best game of his career in the Pokes' narrow 20-17 loss to Texas-Arlington. At this game, the Pokes' garnered most of their yards in the air. With quarterbacks Wendell LeJeune and Chad Millet doing the pitching, McNeese accounted for 267 yards in the air, completing 16-of-25 passes.

McNeese 44, USL 18

The 1978 McNeese Cowboys closed out their football season Saturday night with a 44-18 thrashing of USL's supposedly Ragin Cajuns.

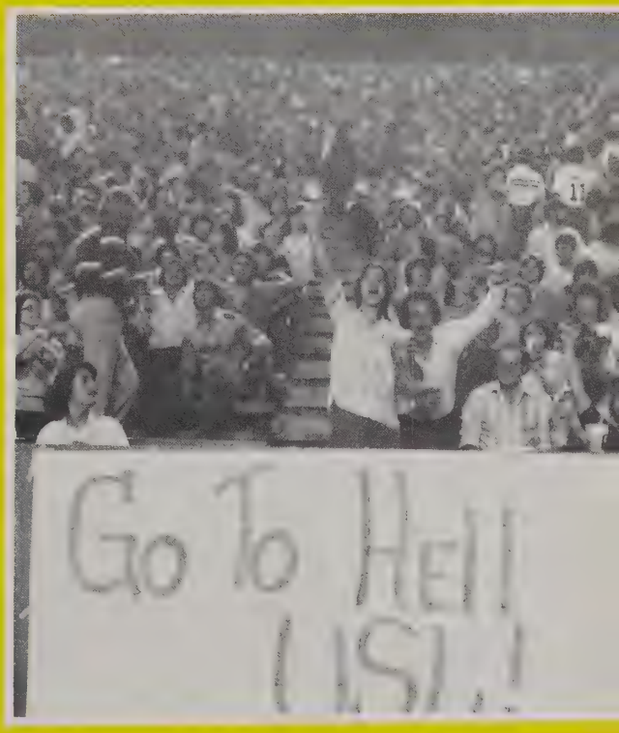

The Pokes finished with a 7-4 worksheet, and 2-3 in Southland Conference play.

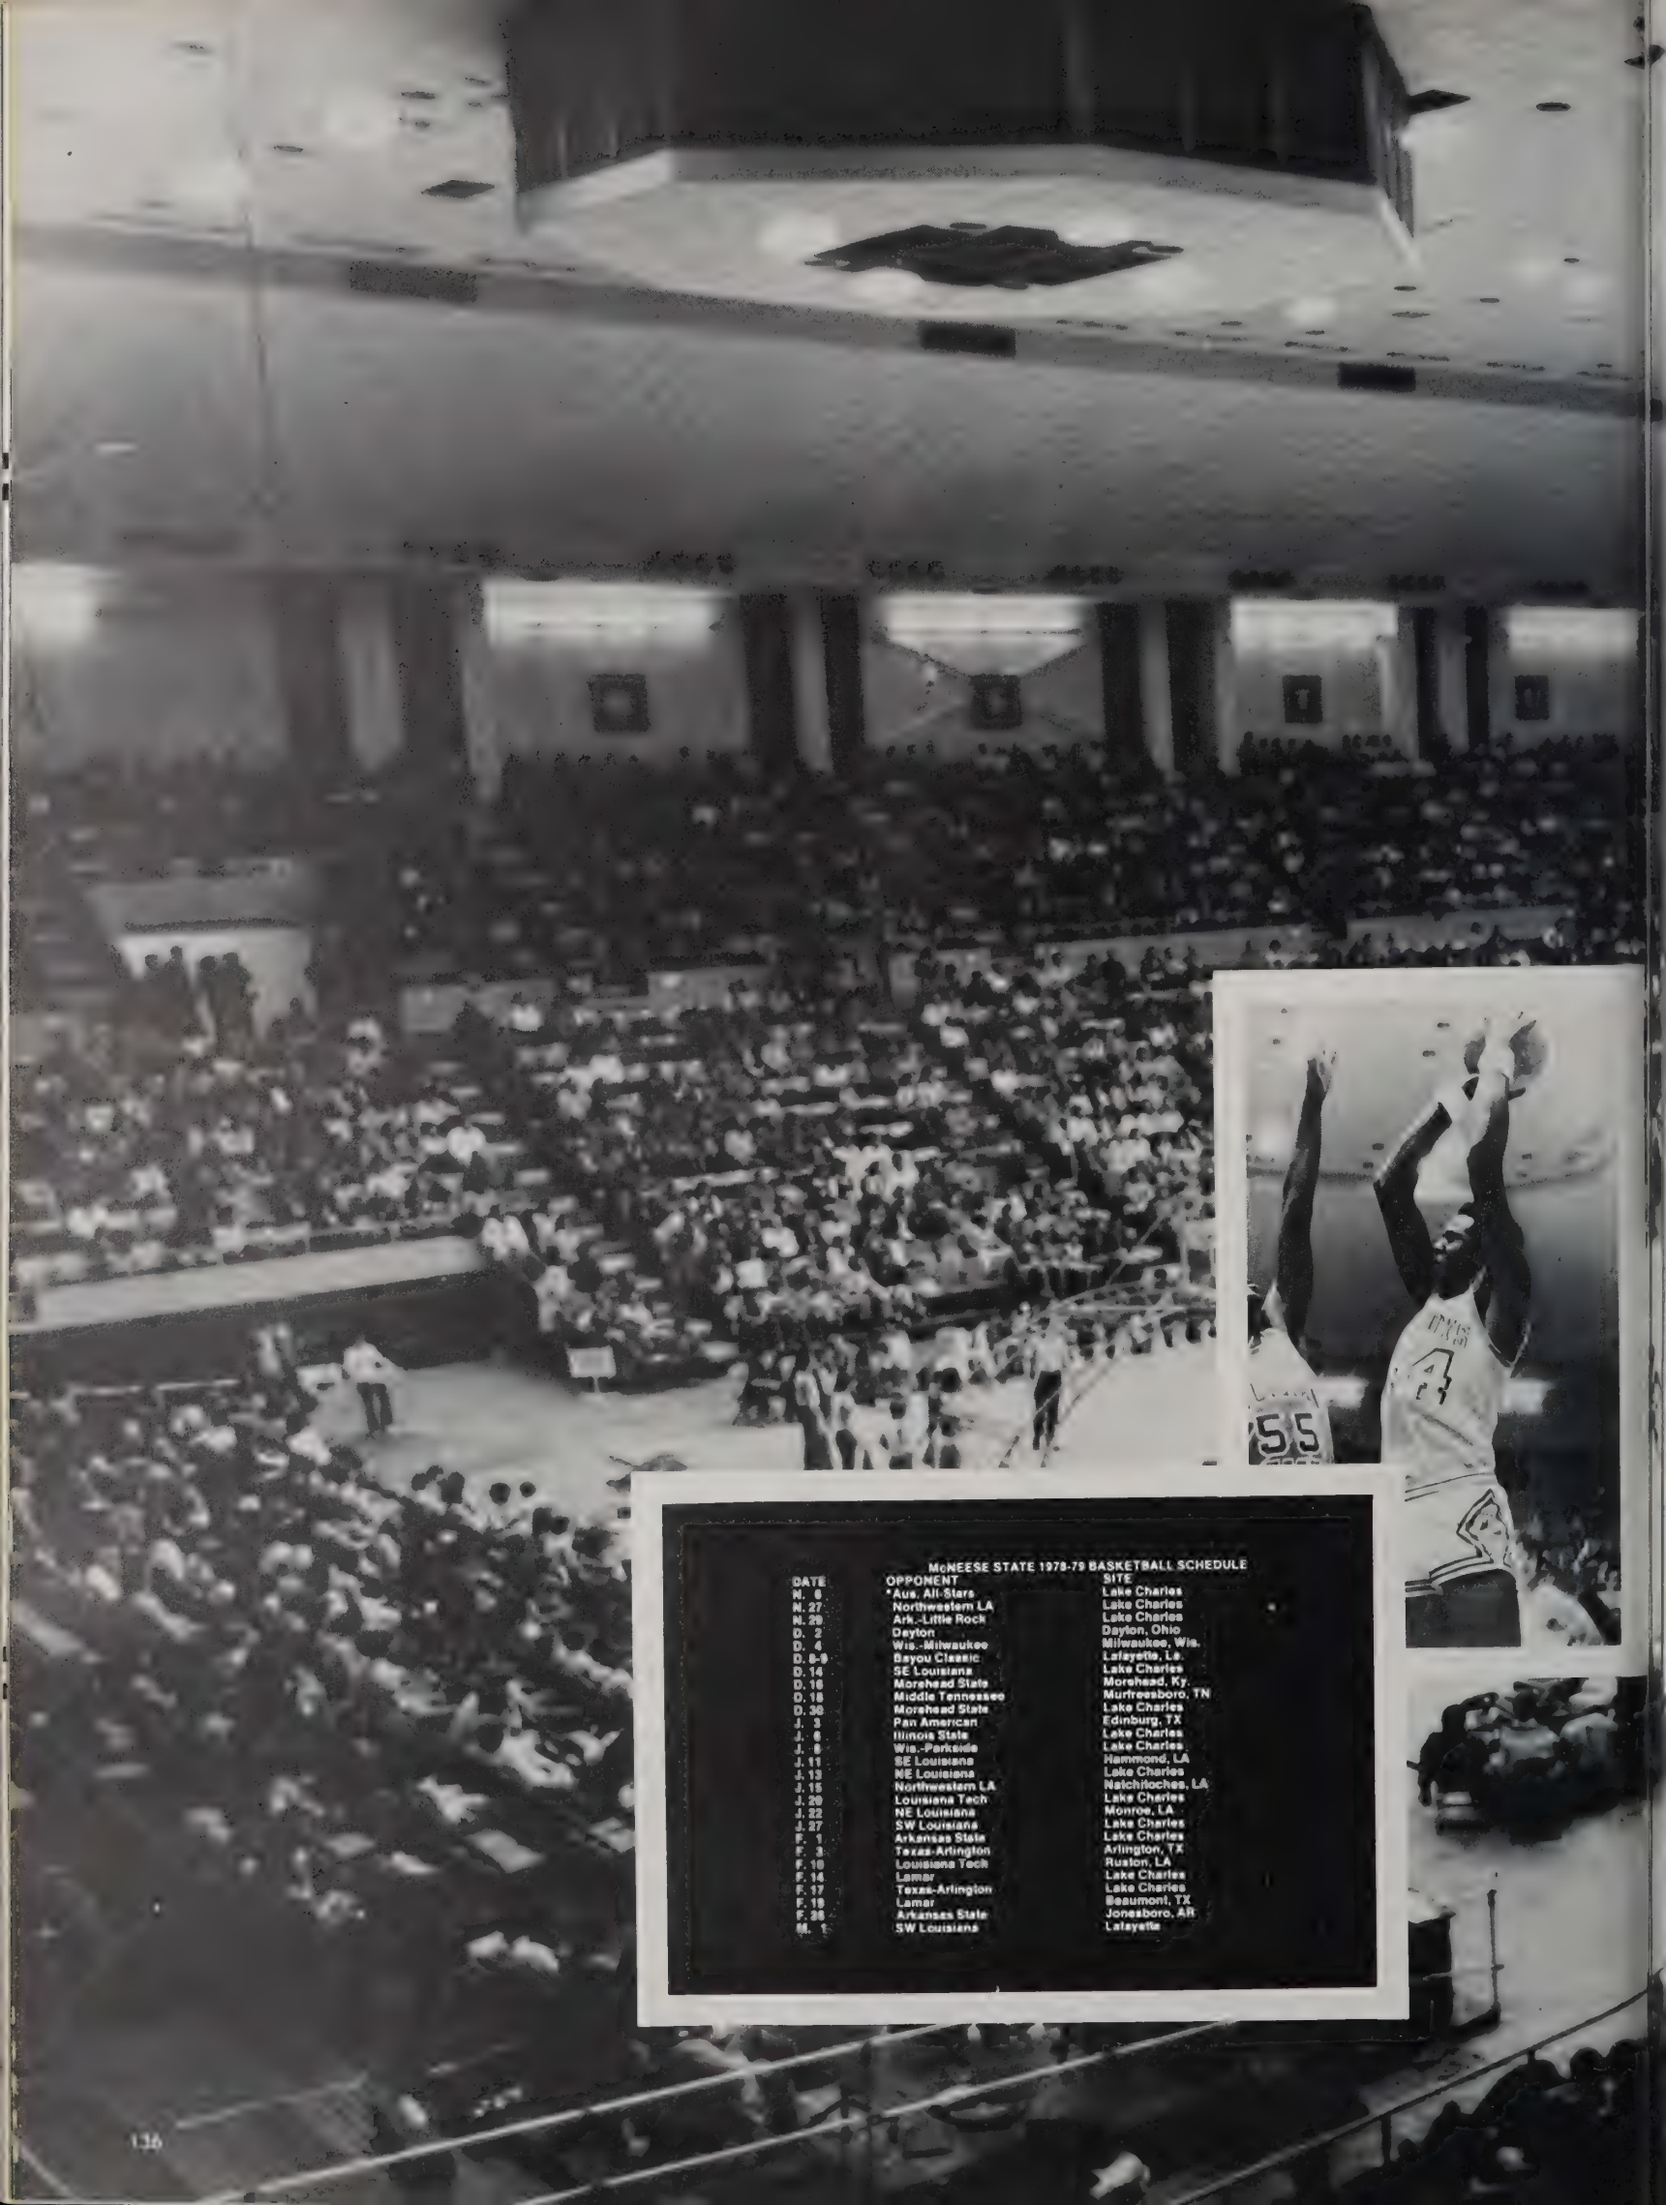

The highlight of the game had to be Richard Ellender's 60 yard punt return for a touchdown, the third time this year he has run back punts for touchdowns. His effort is a McNeese and conference record.

The Intramural Program at McNeese is sponsored by the Department of Health and Physical Education, and offers a variety of activities which provide students with the opportunity to participate in organized individual and team sports. The program does not require the intense training and high level of skill associated with college varsity athletics. Your playing ability is not as important as your desire to participate.

In addition to the organized program of activities, facilities are available to students who wish to relax through recreation.

Kappa Alpha

Kappa Alpha fraternity was founded at McNeese State on October 24, 1969. KA is a fraternity rich in tradition and southern custom; the southern hospitality, the serious reverence for God, and the high respect and love for womanhood.

The brothers of the Kappa Alpha Order look to Robert E. Lee for example, — one who was confident, yet gentle; a leader, yet understanding, and a man who feared his God and treated others with respect.

KA tries to fulfill the individual and prepare him responsibility, recreation, and most important, a brotherly sense of belonging.

Lambda Chi Alpha

Lambda Chi Alpha is one of the youngest fraternities on McNeese campus, but being young is a characteristic to be taken advantage of by others. The main difference in Lambda Chi Alpha is that pledges are out and associate members are in. Associate members enjoy the same privileges of an initiated member. This includes the right to vote and to hold an office. In doing away with pledges, we have also done away with the hazing of new members. Lambda Chi was founded in 1909 at Boston University.

What sweetness is left in life, if you take away friendship? Robbing life of friendship is like robbing the world of its sun.

The same holds true with a fraternity. Friendship leads to brotherhood, which leads to manhood. Pi Kappa Phi is the fastest growing fraternity in the nation today.

The brothers of the Beta Mu chapter of Pi Kappa Phi work hard, but they also find time to enjoy life that God has given them. Participation in the Interfraternity Council and other campus related activities is indeed a challenge, but it is the kind of test one wants to grow, to experience, in the very sense of the words. Officers are: Steve Nelson, Arcon; R. B. Smith, Vice-Arcon; John Niles, Treasurer; Mike Vincent, Secretary; Hubert Gibson, Warden; and Murray Thibodeaux, Chaplain.

To wear the Diamond Pin of Alpha Delta Pi is indeed a privilege and a responsibility. Alpha Delta Pi is the oldest sorority, founded in 1851. The motto, "We live for each other," is held dear by every Alpha Delta Pi sister.

Each Alpha Delta Pi is different in her own way, each possessing her own specialty. Through respect for each other and activities planned for each other, the ties of sisterhood are pulled even tighter.

The Alpha Delta Pi girls are a big part of other campus activities and organizations. They feel that striving towards a stronger bond, includes reaching out to others.

Zeta Phi Beta Sorority was organized on Jan. 16, 1920 at Howard University, Washington, D.C. Lambda Gamma had its beginning on McNeese State University on April 2, 1970. From this time on Zetas have worked hard and wholeheartedly to fulfill their ideals of scholarship, sisterly love, service, and finer womanhood.

Our national project is Stork's Nest: Stork's Nest is a store with clothing for babies whose parents are of low income.

We also collect money for March of Dimes, Unicef, NAACP, United Negro College Fund, Sickle Cell Anemia and for many other needs. We as Zeta women strive hard, working in our communities and giving the services we have.

ZTA

With 181 chapters and nine colonies, Zeta Tau Alpha is the third largest and fastest-growing sorority in the U.S. and Canada. Since its founding on the McNeese campus in May, 1971, the sisters of the Eta Eta chapter have strived to help each other to develop her abilities to the highest. They emphasize scholarship, campus and community service.

The Zetas have worked together to raise money for the National Association for Retarded Children and gladly volunteered their time to usher at all the home MSU basketball games. The annual Silver Crown formal, a Christmas party, exchanges, and slumber parties make up today's Zeta.

Delta Tau Chi

The Delta Tau Chi fraternity is McNeese's newest fraternity organization. Consisting mostly of dormitory students, Delta Tau Chi provides its members and the community with the right mixture of social activities, community and college service, and brotherhood.

Some of the Deltas' best parties were held at the Legal Tender and the C'est Tout Lounge, but the fraternity also participated in Homecoming as well as road trips to many out of town games. Delta Tau Chi provided services to the Lake Charles community, including visits to the children wards of St. Patrick's and Memorial Hospitals. Certain members of the fraternity also provided blood for an emergency case early in the fall semester.

GREEKS

Panhellenic Council is the organization which handles all membership (Rush) week activities. The Council, which is composed of two representatives and one alumna from each sorority encourages sorority cooperation and coordinates activities involving all sororities. As part of its duties, this group has arranged a schedule of parties to enable the girls to meet and get acquainted with sorority members and other girls through Membership Week.

GREEKS

What is the Inter-Fraternity Council? Besides sponsoring activities such as Greek Week, Rush Week and Campus Beautification, the Inter-Fraternity Council promotes, to the non-Greek members at McNeese, the benefits of being part of a social fraternity. Greek Week is a time when all fraternities and sororities come together to socialize and compete with each other for prizes. It is fashioned with canoe races in the Contraband, pyramid building, and many other interesting events. To show the Greek concern for the welfare of McNeese, the IFC sponsors a donation drive to raise money for landscaping the campus. This year, IFC plans to put around campus clusters of pine trees. Also, the Inter-Fraternity Council promotes scholastic achievement between fraternities. They give the fraternity with the highest overall grade point average an award.

Summary

This section of the book will be devoted to the people of this university and to the happenings of this school. The "People" section will be a brief summary of the events and activities reported in the "Contraband."

We have outlined the year month by month, and event by event to help you to remember the year a little easier. We've tried to capture the most important events that have happened and put them into words — words that will help you shape your memories into something solid and fresh.

When you put the whole year together maybe you'll see that it wasn't such a bad year after all.

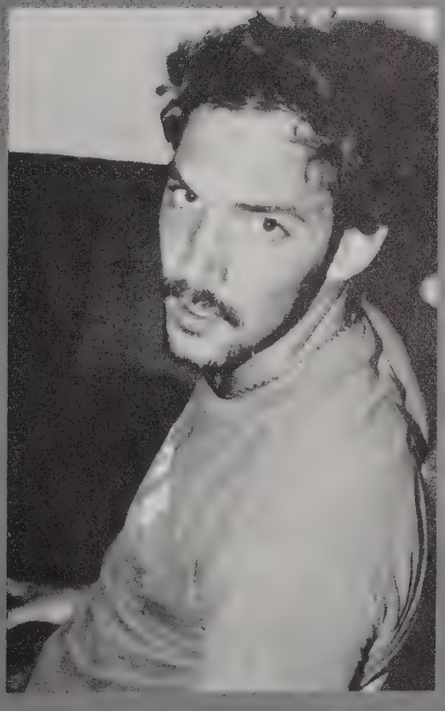

"DA Forum is only the beginning" was the headline of the editorial in the first edition of the "Contraband" in the Fall semester. It was a statement that foreshadowed the things to come. In Kevin Troutman's eyes, "the 1978-79 academic year at McNeese is going to be this university's best ever if we can keep the momentum we've gathered through enthusiastic teamwork in the weeks preceding the beginning of the semester."

An early highlight for the semester was the "Meet the Candidates" Forum sponsored by the Contraband in cooperation with SGA and SUB. This activity was held eight days before the election. According to several students and administrators, this activity improved the image of McNeese for the eyes of the community. It also attracted favorable attention from students attending the forum.

All five candidates for the post of District Attorney were present at the forum — Fred Book, Lenn Knapp, Raleigh Newman, Larry Roach, and Frank Salter.

Bryan Gill, Dale Martin, Paul Miller, and David O'Bryan were the four students on the questioning panel for the forum.

Approximately five-hundred individuals attended the forum held in the Leland Parra Ballroom of the Student Union Annex.

The straw vote conducted after the forum was won by Lenn Knapp and Knapp emerged as the winner of the DA election.

A senate bill for a SUB assessment increase was passed in the fall semester allowing three dollars more per person to be available to SUB for top movies and entertainment for the students.

Charles H. "Charlie" Goens, a veteran of 18 years of law enforcement experience, was named director of campus police at MSU.

Dr. Benjamin Ruhl, professor of Health and Physical education retired after 26 years of teaching. He joined the faculty in 1965.

An organized booster club for the purpose of providing financial assistance to the women's athletic program was formed.

Thirty-six young ladies were nominated for freshman court and eight were elected by the student body on Sept. 8. They include Phyllis Breeden, Laura David, Mariet Lester, Eva Prejean, and Jeanette Stafford. The court was presented at the McNeese vs. Nicholls football game on Oct. 7. Mariet Lester was elected Freshman Queen.

Freshman senators elected for the 1978-79 year were Pam Anderson, Laura David, Danny Gothreaux, Cindy Lincoln, and Chris Masse.

Methods and techniques of writing, and preparing a newspaper for publication were two of the topics discussed at the high school newspaper seminar hosted by the "Contraband" staff. Several speakers addressed the group and presented demonstrations and activities for the students. They included Les DeVall, Gary Snyder, Kevin Troutman, and Don Kingery of the American Press.

Approximately fifty vehicles were towed away by an area wrecker service from the old gas station across the street from Kaufman Hall. Many McNeese students found themselves victim of a wrecker's fee and found themselves without an automobile.

Area merchants cooperated with SUB by furnishing clothes and accessories for one of the finest, most contemporary fashion shows at McNeese.

Coordinator of the show was Franet Meyer who began planning the show early in the fall semester.

Six MSU students represented McNeese publications at the annual National Council of College Publications Advisors Seminar in Houston.

On the weekend of Oct. 24, Kappa Alpha celebrated its ninth birthday with "Grande Manger."

Plans for a 3.7 million dollar physical education facility were released by Paul Ritter, director of Planning and Facilities. They included renovation of the arena, addition of three basketball courts, four racquetball courts, storage, weight lifting equipment, offices, and dressing rooms. To be a part of the new facilities will be an olympic-sized swimming pool.

ROTC held the annual Turkey Shoot Nov. 17-18 for the Thanksgiving contest, and Dec. 15-16 for the Christmas contest.

According to Dr. Thomas Leary, a 40-ft. rappelling tower for military science students would be built through donations from several community-minded firms and organizations.

In the Burton Coliseum on Nov. 29, the McNeese Rodeo Club held its second Annual Student Body Rodeo, and the following week the Ninth Annual McNeese NIRA Rodeo was held.

A totem pole which was donated to the department of Visual Arts by Michael Elliott of Sulphur was taken from its base and reappeared one week later just as mysteriously as it had disappeared.

A special airing of the 1978 MESSIAH was presented by radio station KAOK which served as the flagship station. The program was carried by stations across the nation and overseas. The program was heard as far away as Vermont, New Hampshire, Montana, Arizona, Pennsylvania, Virginia, and Alaska.

Marking a first in the 36-year history of ROTC at McNeese was the promotion of Lt. Col. Carroll W. Shaddock Jr. to the rank of full colonel. He was the first professor and head of military science at McNeese to be promoted to the rank of colonel while assigned to that position.

Early in the spring semester,

SUB sponsored "Sea Level," a group founded from the remnants of the Allman Brothers Band. They performed Wed. Jan. 24 in the McNeese Auditorium.

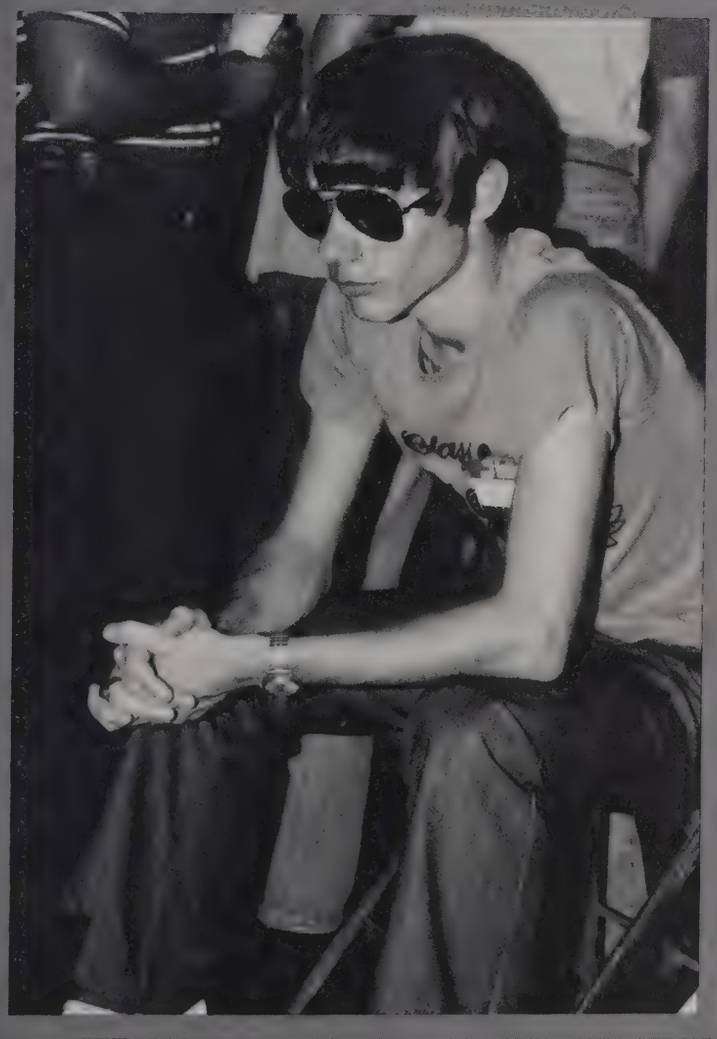

At the recommendation of the faculty and deans council, a "get tough policy" became effective Jan. 18, and students were directly affected.

Memos were circulated outlining what Dr. Suarez called a restatement and reemphasis of university policies which had been previously in effect.

The main points of the directive called for comprehensive mid-term and final exams, along with strict adherence to the university grading scale.

The grand opening of MSU's first music listening room located by the pool hall and under the TV room was held Feb. 9. The room was equipped with Kenwood sound equipment for fine quality listening of albums, cassettes, and radio stations.

The 1979 year at McNeese will be remembered for many things. For many of us, the year was more memorable than it was for others. Some will remember it as dull gray, while many will remember it as a rainbow of colors.

In the preceding pages the 1979 LOG staff tried to create a portion of that rainbow. We hope that this year's book will make whatever memories you have of MSU a little easier to remember.

As time wears on, those vivid memories will become distorted and confused. Recording the year on paper was a difficult task because no two people remember an event exactly the same way.

But if by looking at this edition of the LOG you're able to remember some of the happiness, the people, the fun, and get a taste of life like it was, then for us, all of the deadline pressures, the frustrations and the long hours of work would be well worth the effort.

DONNA M. VINCENT
Editor-in-Chief

Life is a road that has to be travelled,
A road with a beginning and an end.
The journey has been travelled by many before;
The trails made have created the trend.

One can follow the trail that the trend has set,
Or he can make a new path of his own.
He can follow the road not taken.
Does he have strength to do it alone?

A change in pace or direction
May be the only clue
For an individual to become himself
With the chance to start anew.

Life is a road.
Will the end be a rainbow?

D. M. Vincent
